

Commander Rudy Komisza

Commander Rudy Komisza, a 22-year veteran, began his career with the Long Beach Police Department in August 1992. In 2000, he was promoted to Sergeant, to Lieutenant in 2004, and to Commander in 2015.

Commander Komisza has a diverse work history, including Patrol, Gang Enforcement, Vice Investigations, Field Training Officer, Drug Investigations, Jail Administration, Internal Affairs, Office of Counter Terrorism, and Juvenile Investigations. He is currently assigned as the Commander of the North Patrol Division.

Commander Komisza has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science / Public Policy and Administration from the University of Arizona, Tucson. He is a graduate of the Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy Session 232 and the Sherman Block Supervisory Institute Class 169.